

Manifestation Determination Meetings

These can be held through an amendment and do not require parent consent.

Manifestation Determination meetings are not an IEP meeting and the parent doesn't sign in consent to implement the disciplinary decision- the entire IEP team is not required for one.

Often there is a full team IEP meeting held after the manifestation meeting.