- Jessica Hilderbrand - Rocklin Academy has been in virtual learning, and they will soon be going to hybrid model.
- Cari Edwards - Tracy started with hybrid and cohort
- Jessica Hilderbrand - Placer County is opening back up
- Jennifer Sage – Great transition to online, with interactive activities using Nearpod, to supplement synchronous lectures. Soon allowing small groups on campus.
- Jessica Hilderbrand - As a parent of a student at Rocklin Academy, I am very impressed with their Distance Learning model. I can compare this to the public school system I work in which has not been as fluid.
- Lori Hahn - Lori Hahn, Plumas Charter School, we started the year with a hybrid model. Delayed due to wildfires but we're up and running now!
- Mary Lim - COIL is still in online learning but our county is now in the Red tier. So conversation and planning for onsite.
- Crystle from Mission Vista Academy our school started virtual clubs. The kids LOVE it!!!
- Randi Pugh - Compass is a non-classroom based school that has seen minimal interruption to learning. In-person services continue online. A return to in-person services and an opening of the Orange County Learning center is under review for implementation.

Some of the current clubs are: art club, science club, cooking club, fitness club, and sign language just to name a few.
- Jessica Hilderbrand– some students are doing much better in the virtual environment.
