

Thompson Policy Institute on Disability

SEL and UDL: A Tiered Approach to Supporting Your Students

Audience: PK-12 educators, school leaders, site and district leadership from charter and non-charter schools in CA

Overview

- Series of 3 full day workshops focused on best practices around Social-Emotional Learning and Universal Design for Learning
- Each workshop will build off one another and will focus on the 3 Tiers of Support and Intervention

When and Where

- Hybrid Option to attend virtually OR in-person at Chapman University
- This is a full day event (9am-3pm)

Attend In-person:

Chapman University
One University Drive, Orange CA 92866

Attend Online:

Zoom link will be sent to individuals who select virtual attendance on the registration form.

Dates and Times of Events:

Friday, December 2, 2022 from 9am-3pm
Friday, February 3, 2023 from 9am-3pm
Tuesday, March 21, 2023 from 9am-3pm

Objectives of the Series

Participants will:

- Learn about the Social-Emotional Learning (SEL competencies) and Universal Design for Learning (UDL) principles in the context of supporting teacher and student mental health
- Develop tools and strategies to support family and student engagement, agency, and belonging using research-based practices
- Explore ways to integrate SEL and UDL to accelerate learning across content areas and foster equitable learning environments

Cost to Join

- Free for participants
- Travel stipends available ($100 per participant)
- Free parking for in-person participants

Registration for both in-person and virtual attendance:

<https://forms.office.com/r/JirDBuSNDj>

Questions?

Contact Chapman University
at tpi@chapman.edu
(714) 997-6692

QR Code
to register

